Learner Take-Home Sheet: Defend Truth

Take this sheet home and keep it someplace near the dinner table, like on the fridge. At least three times next week at dinner, use Prayer Time and one other family activity to make your confirmation learning come alive!

Prayer Time (Write the following prayer on the back)

Pray for truth tellers in our world. Pray for people who have suffered or been unduly oppressed for speaking the truth. Pray also for those whom we expect to be truth tellers (governmental leaders, judges, police, and so forth), that they would be honest and true in the fulfillment of their vocations.

Write a family definition for each one during the week.

Talk Time

- Share how, when, and where you learned the value of honesty. Can you—either parents or youth—name a particular time when you had to make a difficult choice to tell the truth, stop some gossip, or fess up to your own lie? Are there incidents of truth telling in your immediate family that you can affirm?

Web Time

Search the Web for the word truth. What sites come up? Who sponsors the sites? What is their definition of truth? Does their definition feel truthful to you?
