Respect Life - A society is truly human when without reservations it protects and respects the dignity of every person from conception until the moment of his or her natural death. However, should it decide to "get rid" of its members in the greatest need of protection, ... it would be behaving in a profoundly inhuman and also distorted manner with regard to the equality — obvious to every person of good will — of the dignity of all people, in all the stages of life. ~Pope Benedict XVI, Address to the Hon. Reinhard Schweppe, Ambassador of the Federal Republic of Germany to the Holy See, November 7, 2011

The Adrian Senior Dining Center is looking for volunteers to deliver Meals on Wheels Monday – Friday starting at 10:45 AM until finished. If interested contact Kathy Henning at 483-2484. "When I was hungry you gave me to eat." MT 25:35. Will you answer the call?

From The Pastor's Desk...

We are well on our way into the New Year. We tend to get bogged down and we make life more complicated than it needs to be. Here are a few simple things for us all to remember:

- Life isn't fair, but it is still good.
- Life is too short to waste time hating someone.
- Don't take yourself so seriously. No one else does.
- You don't have to win every argument. Agree to disagree.
- When it comes to chocolate, resistance is futile.
- Make peace with the past so it doesn't haunt the present.
- If a relationship has to be a secret, you shouldn't be in it.
- Everything can change in the blink of an eye. But don't worry: God doesn't blink.
- You can get through almost anything if you just stay put in today.
- Over prepare, and then go with the flow.
- No one is in charge of your happiness except you.
- A question to ask: "In five years, will this matter?"
- Always choose life.
- Forgive everyone everything.
- What other people think of you is none of your business.
- However good or bad a situation is, it will change.
- Your job won't take care of you when you are sick: your family will.
- Believe in miracles.
- God loves you for who you are, not because of anything you did or didn't do.
- Your children get only one childhood: do it right.
- Read the psalms. They cover every human emotion.
- God is good and miracles are waiting everywhere.
- Envy is a waste of time. You are a wondrous creation.
- Take a deep breath. It calms the mind.
- Life isn't tied with a bow, but it is still a gift.
- All that truly matters in the end is that you have loved and are loved.

Fr. Timothy J. Hall
