When I Say...

When I say..."I am a Christian,"
I'm not shouting, "I am saved!"
I'm whispering, "I was lost!"
That is why I chose this way.

When I say..."I am a Christian,"
I don't speak of this with pride.
I'm confessing that I stumble and
Need someone to be my guide.

When I say..."I am a Christian,"
I'm not trying to be strong.
I'm professing that I'm weak and
Pray for strength to carry on.

When I say..."I am a Christian,"
I'm not bragging of success.
I'm admitting I've failed and
Cannot ever pay the debt.

When I say..."I am a Christian,"
I'm not claiming to be perfect.
My flaws are too visible,
But God Believes I'm worth it.

When I say..."I am a Christian,"
I still feel the sting of pain.
I have my share of heartaches,
Which is why I seek his name.

When I say..."I am a Christian,"
I do not wish to judge.
I have no authority.
I only know I am loved!

A Meaningful Prayer

When Mister Joe Wright was asked to open the new session of the Kansas Senate, everyone was expecting the usual generalities, but this is what they heard:

"Heavenly Father, we come before you today to ask Your forgiveness and to seek Your direction and guidance. We know Your word says, "Woe to those who call evil good" but that is exactly what we have done. We have lost our spiritual equilibrium and reversed our values. We confess that:
We have ridiculed the absolute truth of your Word and called it pluralism;
We have worshiped other gods and called it multiculturalism;
We have endorsed perversion and called it alternative lifestyle;
We have exploited the poor and called it the lottery;
We have rewarded laziness and called it welfare;
We have killed our unborn and called it choice,
We have shot abortionists and called it justifiable-
We have neglected to discipline our children and called it building self-esteem;
We have abused power and called it politics;

We have coveted our neighbors' possessions and called it ambition,
We have polluted the air with profanity and pornography and called it freedom of expression;
We have ridiculed the time-honored values of our forefathers and called it enlightenment;
Search us, Oh God, and know our hearts today; cleanse us from every sin and set us free.
Guide and bless these men and women who have been sent to direct us to the center of Your will, to openly ask it in the name of Your Son, the living Savior, Jesus Christ, Amen."

The response was immediate. A number of legislators (all Democrats) walked out during the prayer in protest. In 6 short weeks, Central Christian Church, where Rev. Wright is pastor, logged more than 5,000 phone calls with only 47 of those calls responding negatively. The church is now receiving international requests for copies of this prayer from India, Africa and Korea. Commentator Paul Harvey aired this prayer on "The Rest of the Story" during his radio show and received a larger response to this program than any other he has ever aired.

20 Things that Took Me 50 Years to Learn:

1. Never, under any circumstances, take a sleeping pill and a laxative on the same night.
2. If you had to identify, in one word, the reason why the human race has not achieved, and never will achieve, its full potential, that word would be "meetings."
3. There is a very fine line between "hobby" and "mental illness."
4. People who want to share their religious views with you almost never want you to share yours with them.
5. And when God, who created the entire universe with all its glories, decides to deliver a message to humanity, he will not use as his messenger a person on cable TV with a bad hairstyle exhorting you to send money.
6. You should not confuse your career with your life.
7. No matter what happens, somebody will find a way to take it too seriously.
8. When trouble arises and things look bad, there is always one individual who perceives a solution and is willing to take command. Very often, that person is crazy.
9. Nobody cares if you can't dance well. Just get up and dance.
10. Never lick a steak knife.
11. Take out the fortune before you eat the cookie.
12. The most powerful force in the universe is gossip.
13. You will never find anybody who can give a clear and compelling reason why we observe daylight savings time.
14. You should never say anything to a woman that even remotely suggests that you think she's pregnant unless you can see an actual baby emerging from her at that moment.
15. There comes a time when you should stop expecting other people to make a big deal about your birthday. That time is age 11.
16. The one thing that unites all human beings, regardless of age, gender, religion, economic status or ethnic background, is that, deep down inside, we all believe that we are above average drivers.
17. The main accomplishment of almost all organized protests is to annoy people who are not in them.
18. A person who is nice to you, but rude to the waiter, is not a nice person.
19. Your friends love you anyway.
20. If aliens are smart enough to travel through space, why do they keep abducting the dumbest people on Earth?

Do I Pray?

*I often say my prayers, but do I ever pray?
And do the wishes of my heart go with the words I say?*

I may as well kneel down and worship gods of stone

As to offer the living God a prayer of words alone.

My Answer

By Billy Graham

Q: Everyone seems to be afraid of the future these days. Does the Gospel of Christ really have the answers for our problems?-E.R.

A: I doubt if the worlds has ever known such fear and despair as millions are experiencing today. It is more than a "nuclear" fear. It is a feeling that the race has somehow lost its way. I believe there has never been such a time to preach the Gospel of Christ. Christianity has always shone brightest when skies were darkest. It tells us that God is concerned with our plight, and that He is trying desperately to make contact with us. Not only does the Gospel of Christ have an answer for these times-it is the only answer.

My Answer

by Billy Graham

Q: I heard of a theologian who wrote a book on the subject, The Death of God. I have heard a lot about God being dead lately. Have you heard about it?-B.R.

A: Some of the advocates have as their premise the fact that our modern culture presupposes the "death of God." In other words, to the average individual God is dead. At least he behaves as though God were dead. True, we go to church, but as the doubting Thomas said, "I will not believe unless I see..." so say we. But even as they do this, they have a haunting suspicion that they are wrong. This is their dilemma. They both doubt and believe, and are incapable of doing either completely. Many are the fence straddlers, the half-committed. They come close to coming under that warning of Christ who said in Revelation: "Because thou are neither cold nor hot, I will spew thee out of My mouth."
