On the day of the fundraiser there was praise for the quality of the event. A few people even said that it was the best steak they had ever had. I continue to hear that the steak fry was a very good experience this year for those who attended. Again, thank you to all who participated!

Every Catholic has the responsibility to know and serve God. TOTUS TUUS is an excellent tool for the spiritual growth of Catholic youth. This past week has been an exciting opportunity to experience our faith for the students, the community and us teachers. As a team, we've received tremendous hospitality and support from parishioners, for which we are eternally grateful. It's wonderful to see the Holy Spirit at work in each and every one of our lives! Thank you so much for this wonderful week; we hope to see you next summer. Please keep us in your prayers as we continue Jesus' ministry on earth.

Thank you also from Leslie and Pam for the wonderful support shown for TOTUS TUUS by the families of our youth. Those who participated had a great time and learned a lot about our faith! Watch their spark fan into flame over the years as they continue to grow in the love of God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

Peter's Pence Collection: Next week our diocese will take up the Peter's Pence Collection, which provides the Holy Father with the funds he needs to carry out his most important charitable works. The proceeds benefit the most disadvantaged; victims of war, oppression and natural disasters. Through your generosity, we can cast the peace of Christ upon the world. Please use the attached envelope and place in the offertory with your Sunday collection. There will not be a second collection.

Special Second Collection: Bishop Quinn has directed a special collection in all parishes in our diocese on the weekend of June 18/19 to assist in the relief of people who have suffered losses from the tornados and floods this spring. One half of the collection will be sent to the diocese in which Joplin, Missouri is located in order to help them recover from the tornado. The other half will be sent to Catholic Charities USA to support the many needs from various tornados and floods in the United States. If you forgot your donation you may drop it off at the parish office this week or place in an envelope for next week's offertory.

Immaculée Ilibagiza: On July 15-16th, 2011, The Church of St. Mary in Worthington will once again welcome Rwandan genocide survivor and author, Immaculée Ilibagiza, as she offers a retreat of Healing and Hope. Early registration price (1 month before the retreat) is $60. To register or for more information visit www.immaculee.com or call 507-360-3423.

Body and Blood...

Our Church has believed for 2000 years that Jesus is truly present in the Eucharist under the appearance of bread and wine in the Mass. We both consume him and worship him in the Eucharist. In the Eucharist he permits us to see him in this life, and thus to gradually become like him both now and in eternity.

Jesus told us quite plainly, "Unless you eat my flesh and drink my blood, you have no life in you" (John 6:53). Many of those who heard Jesus say this at the time were quite scandalized by this kind of talk, and scripture says that after hearing it, "they followed him no more (John 6:66). Who could blame them? The Mosaic Law forbade Jews from drinking blood of any kind. They must have concluded that Jesus was both a law-breaker and a cannibal. Many of the Romans, in fact, also thought the early Christians to be cannibals for the same reason.

It takes a gift of faith to believe that Jesus is really present in the Eucharist. It still looks like bread and wine; it smells like bread and wine; it even tastes like bread and wine, but in truth, the Eucharist is far more than that. When Jesus walked the earth, he didn't look like the Son of God either. In all outward appearances, Jesus looked like an ordinary man from northern Israel. Just as it took faith at that time to see Jesus as God, so today it takes faith to see Jesus in the Eucharist he left us.

This, then, is our opportunity to demonstrate our faith in Jesus, by the way we genuflect before the tabernacle, the reverence with which we receive the host, and the preparation we make before Mass begins. Do we thank Jesus after we have received him or are we too busy watching everyone else go up the aisle?

The Eucharist looks very ordinary, and because of this it takes a radical faith in Jesus Christ to believe in it. We Catholic Christians have a very radical religion. Corpus Christi, the solemnity of the Body and blood of the Lord, demonstrates just how radical our faith really is. We will celebrate this solemnity next Sunday.
