

This Week On Ellen

MONDAY

Monday, January 1 ELLEN'S "AS SEEN ON TV" SHOW

ELLEN kicks off an outrageous week with a special "AS SEEN ON TV" show. Ellen tests products from your favorite infomercials, including a Ginsu knife and the Butter Express! Ellen even gets "Mama" in on the action with "Sweating with Betty," where Betty puts TV fitness fads to the test with help from workout king TONY LITTLE. And actor CHARLIE SHEEN of "Two and a Half Men" joins in on the fun with his own inventions. Plus, two pioneers in the infomercial world, Tomima Edmark, inventor of the "Topsy Tail," and Joy Mangano of HSN share their inspiring stories. And the fitness guru who needs no introduction, RICHARD SIMMONS, drops by. Then Ellen premieres her very own "As Seen On TV" invention, available for a limited time!

CLICK FOR PREVIEW:

TUESDAY

Tuesday, January 2 COURTENEY COX

Ellen kicks off the New Year in style with a bonus day of "Ellen's 12 Days of Giveaways." The lovely COURTENEY COX joins Ellen and chats about her role as a hard driving editor-in-chief of a tabloid magazine in the much-anticipated F/X series "Dirt." Plus, Ellen puts Courteney's ten seasons of "Friends" knowledge to the test with a game of "What's My Next Line?" Then, five-time Grammy nominee JOHN MAYER performs "Gravity" from his critically acclaimed and Album of the Year nominee, "Continuum." And don't miss out on some of Ellen's best moments from 2006, and find out how you can sound off on your favorite Ellen moment! Then, Ellen shares some hilarious New Year's resolutions from fifth graders across the country!

CLICK FOR PREVIEW:
 See the Video

WEDNESDAY

Wednesday, January 3 SAMUEL L. JACKSON

One of the hardest working actors in Hollywood, SAMUEL L. JACKSON, visits with Ellen and talks about his film "Home of the Brave." Plus, Samuel shows off some of his step moves from his college marching band days. And Ellen and Samuel play one of Ellen's favorite games "Celebrity!" Then, Ellen shows the funniest videos breaking across the internet with another edition of the "Wunnerful World of Web Videos." And from the Golden Globe nominated series "Ugly Betty," the handsome ERIC MABIUS joins Ellen for the first time to talk about what it's like to be on the biggest new hit of the television season.

CLICK FOR PREVIEW:
 See the Video

THURSDAY

Thursday, January 4 MATTHEW FOX

One of Hollywood's hottest actors, MATTHEW FOX, joins Ellen and talks about his inspiring film, "We Are Marshall," based on the true story of how an entire community came together after a devastating tragedy. Plus, Matthew shares a very curious story about how he learned to swim and who was responsible for teaching him. Ellen also gets some inside information on the 2007 return of one of her favorite shows, "Lost." Plus, making her first appearance on the show, tennis legend MARTINA NAVRATILOVA chats with Ellen about the highlights of her amazing career and her motives behind writing her first fitness book. And, the number one freestyle skate team, "Breaksk8," performs a jaw-dropping dance routine entirely on old school roller skates!

CLICK FOR PREVIEW:
 See the Video

FRIDAY

Friday, January 5 ROB LOWE

The handsome and charming ROB LOWE stops by and talks with Ellen about his new role opposite Calista Flockhart and Sally Field in the hit series "Brothers and Sisters." Plus, seventeen year old Nick Graham, who helped keep alive his town of Truman, Minnesota by saving the town's only grocery store from closing, shares his inspiring story with Ellen. And now's your chance to be heard when Ellen lets you sound off and reads some of your emails in another edition of "WRITE ON."

CLICK FOR PREVIEW:
 See the Video

POLICY

© 2007 WAD Productions, Inc