And suddenly it is summer. The weather has warmed up, the trees are almost fully in leaf, I even see corn several inches about the ground in some fields. I've heard my first complaints about it being too warm. Graduation parties have started, wedding dates are approaching, and school children are becoming distracted. Some things will slow down in the parishes, but we do want to start some of the GROW recommendations in the coming weeks. Some of these will be very simple – families bringing up gifts rather than ushers, planning community education events, being more engaged in some community events, having books in each church where birthdays, wedding and death anniversaries can be remembered for our intercessions, that sort of thing. Sometime during the summer I hope to teach a class on the book of Revelation, probably on consecutive nights some week. Enjoy these days and this season, but don't check out. We need God every season, every week, every minute.

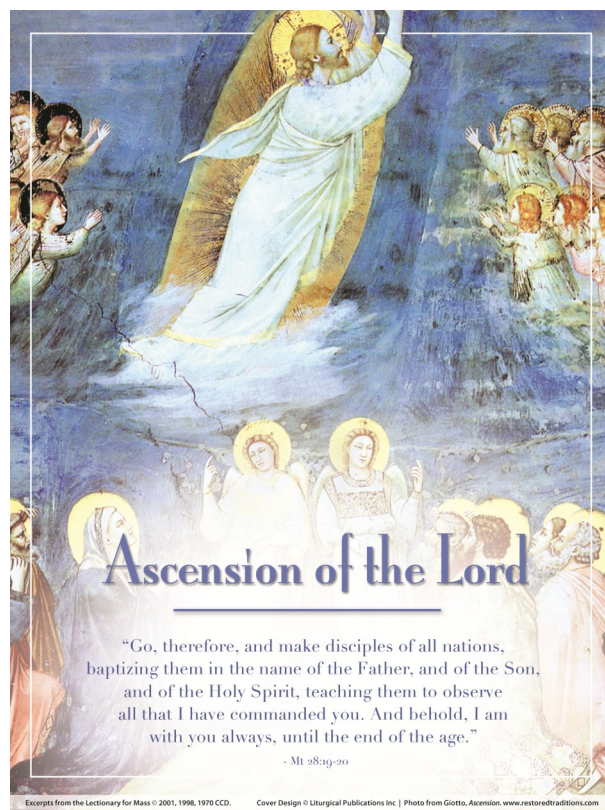

Today is the Feast of the Ascension. We all know that this refers to when Jesus returned to the Father, when he left the earth in bodily form and is now “seated at the right hand of the Father.” It is reported that he was among his disciples for 40 days after the resurrection. Forty days is one of those terms used often in the Bible, and it doesn't have to be exactly 40 days – it means a fairly substantial time, but weeks rather than years. Ascension means not only rising up physically, as ascending in an elevator; it also means rising to a greater power, such as a king ascending to the throne. “Christ's ascension marks the definitive entrance of Jesus' humanity into God's heavenly domain, whence he will come again (cf. Acts 1:11); this humanity in the meantime hides him from the eyes of me (cf. Col 3.3).” (CCC #665) What does it mean for us? Jesus precedes us, so that we, the Body of Christ, might hope to join him there some day. As the preface for the feast of the Ascension says, “he ascended, not to distance himself from our lowly state but that we, his members, might be confident of following where he, our Head and Founder, has gone before.” What is Jesus doing in heaven? Jesus is practicing his priesthood. He is interceding for us, praying for us, as “the mediator who assures us of the permanent outpouring of the Holy Spirit.” (CCC 667).

We are told Jesus will come again. What happens in the meantime? Jesus' ascension into heaven signifies his participation, in his humanity, in God's power and authority. Jesus is Lord; all power and authority is his, and the Father has put everything under his feet. Meanwhile, Christ dwells on earth in his Church. The Holy Spirit has been sent – we will celebrate that with Pentecost next week – and so we are in the final age. I'm not saying the world will end on this or that date, or even within the lifetime of anyone on earth today. We simply do not know that. But the renewal of the world is underway. There is a real, but as yet imperfect sanctity. While the kingdom is here, it is not yet fulfilled. We are in the time of the Spirit, but there is still distress, there is still evil, not all things are subject yet. Eventually Jesus will return and evil will be definitively destroyed, and the final judgment will take place. In the meantime, we are to continue to work for the building up of the kingdom.

This weekend be aware of the majesty and hope of the Ascension, and now allow the once and coming Spirit into your lives.

A reminder again that we start our new schedule next weekend, continuing through Labor Day. Masses at Vermillion at 5:00 Saturday; New Trier at 8:00 on Sunday; Hampton at 10:00 on Sunday. Confessions for Summer will be Saturday morning at 9:00 in New Trier; Saturday afternoons at 4:00 p.m. in Vermillion; Tuesday Evening at 6:00 in Vermillion and Friday mornings 9:00-9:30 in Hampton.

In Remembrance – Our Beloved Dead: Please remember in your prayers, Father Gilbert Endres, who died May 24, 2014. He was ordained a priest for the Archdiocese of St. Paul and Minneapolis on June 7, 1952. Mass of Christian Burial was held on Friday, May 30, 2014. May Father Gilbert enjoy the fullness of life in Christ, our Resurrection and Life.

Funeral Dishes: We have had a couple of people report that their bowl is missing when they went to pick them up after a funeral. If possible, use containers that don't have to be returned if you know you won't pick up your bowl in a timely manner. If using your own bowl, please check carefully to make sure you have picked up the correct bowl.

Children's Liturgy: We are hoping to revive teaching our little ones, ages 3-6 the word of God during Mass. We need about 6 more volunteers willing to help us. Doesn't take much time. If we don't get the 6 volunteers it will only be offered once a month. Call the parish office for information. We would like to start this in June.

He has risen indeed!

Congratulations to Sr Mary Noel's 3rd grade class at St John the Baptist School-Vermillion who recently performed The Risen Lord: An Easter Play to a Pre-K through 6th grade all-school assembly, including parents and community members. The original play written by Sr Noel portrays the 40 days following the resurrection of Jesus Christ during which time He prepared and commissioned his disciples to spread the good news and to baptize all in the name of the Father, Son, and the Holy Spirit. After this, Jesus ascended to his Father in a cloud. Students and parents prepared all of the stage props, background scenes, and costumes for the production.

GETTING TO KNOW OUR PARISH FAMILY

George & Geri Weinhandl

The Weinhandl family have been members of the St. Mathias Parish since 2003. Geri (Geraldine Endres) and George Weinhandl were married in Hampton in 1985.

Geri is the daughter of Jay (Julius) and Gert Endres. (Deceased) She grew up on the Endres family farm, just south of Hampton, and like her brothers and sisters, attended the St. Mathias Catholic School.

George is the son of George (deceased) and Erna Weinhandl. He was born in Austria, moved to Canada, and then came to St. Paul with his family. Eventually, his parents purchased land and built a home south of Hampton.

George worked as a government contractor on different projects and after they were married they lived in New York, Baltimore and Chicago. In 1990 they headed west to settle in Eagan and joined the St. Thomas Beckett Parish. They lived in Eagan for thirteen years before moving back to the Hampton area in 2003.

They have four children; twins, Mike and Maria, Joseph and Robert. All are currently working full time jobs, mostly here in the Twin Cities area.

George now works for Xcel Energy and Geri works at Greg's Meats. They also have an apple orchard that keeps them and their entire family busy during the harvest season.

The Weinhandl's are greeters before Mass and working around the apple orchard schedule, Geri still finds time to come to Eucharist Adoration on Tuesdays. She also helps clean church and works at the funeral luncheons.
